THE RABBI TEACHES

The Spring High Holy Days

By Rabbi Jennifer L. Frenkel

By the time this newsletter reaches your mailbox, we will be sitting just a week or two away from what has been called the “High Holy Day Season of Israeli Life.” A special time on our Jewish calendar, we mark the Israeli holidays of Yom HaShoah (Holocaust Remembrance Day), Yom HaZikaron (Israel’s official Memorial Day), and Yom Ha’Atzma’ut (Independence Day in Israel).

As we move into this designated time on our calendar, it feels different this year. So much has felt different this year. It is, somehow, hard to believe that seven months have passed since October 7, when Hamas terrorists waged the deadliest attack on Jews since the Holocaust and took hundreds of innocent civilians hostage. Seven months of hoping and praying and working for the release of the hostages and the healing of the thousands brutally injured and traumatized, and the tens of thousands more who have been affected in the months since by the ongoing violence, terrorism, and growing humanitarian crisis.

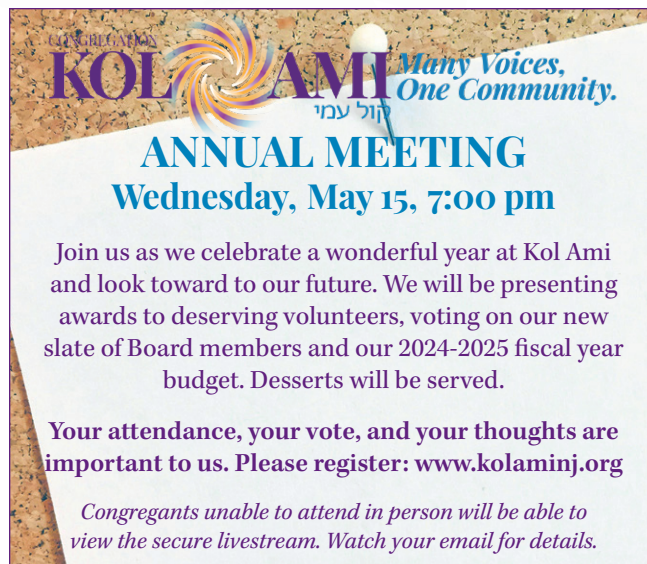

Many of us have struggled with how to best express our care and compassion for the innocent people in both Israel and Gaza, how to stand for the values we hold sacred as a Jewish community while also acknowledging that we may not all always agree on political policies or political decisions, and how we continue to struggle most acutely with the current situation in Israel and Gaza, yet also recognizing that the conflict has a long, painful, and complicated history.

How ironic it is, then, that the very name “Israel” (Yisrael), has, at its very root, the notion of “wrestling” and the notion of how sacred that can be.

At times when I wrestle with conflicting thoughts and emotions – when I find myself struggling with the cognitive dissonance that comes from holding seemingly contradictory beliefs at the same time – it is often the words of poetry that I connect with most powerfully. It is in looking at the poetry written by both Israeli and Palestinian poets where I often find powerful expression of that which most deeply connects us and impacts us as human beings.

Yehuda Amichai, recognized as one of Israel’s most famous poets, has had his Hebrew poems translated into over forty languages. One of his well-known poems, filled with stark contrasts and irony, is titled “Jerusalem:”

FROM OUR LEADERSHIP

Eric Hurwitz, President

The theme of this edition of Connections is a look back on our past year, and as I reflect on that topic, we have many reasons for Kol Ami pride. The unification of our two legacy synagogues has proven to be a catalyst for growth and transformation, touching every aspect of our community. I could write more words than our editor will allow, so allow me to comment on just a few.

We welcomed a new clergy partner in Rabbi Milan-Polisar, who has quickly become an integral part of our spiritual leadership team. In our full Religious School and Early Childhood Center, we have witnessed tremendous energy and growth. These spaces have become nurturing environments where our children can grow, learn, and thrive. The dedication of our educators and the engagement of our families have contributed to the success and vibrancy of our educational programs.

Our calendar has been bustling with events that cater to diverse backgrounds and interests. From engaging study sessions to thought-provoking discussion groups, tikkun olam activities, and social gatherings, Kol Ami has become a place where everyone can find something that resonates with them. These events have fostered a sense of belonging and community among our members.

Through careful planning and sound financial management, we have been able to establish a $5 million endowment to help secure our future. This milestone ensures that our congregation will continue to thrive and serve future generations.

None of these accomplishments would have been possible without the tireless efforts of all our dedicated volunteers, committee chairs, executive committee, and board members. Their commitment and hard work have been instrumental in driving our success. Additionally, our dynamic team of clergy partners has provided spiritual guidance and support, helping us navigate our individual and collective journeys.

While we acknowledge and appreciate the contributions of all those involved in our community, I wanted to offer my deepest appreciation to our fabulous staff. Their behind-the-scenes work is the driving force behind our success. I encourage each of you to take a moment to personally thank our staff members when you see them. Their contributions often go unnoticed, but their impact on our community is immeasurable.

Looking ahead, we have even more improvements planned in the months to come. These enhancements will further elevate our facilities, creating an environment that fosters connection, growth, and spiritual nourishment. We are committed to ensuring that our physical space reflects the vibrancy and warmth of our community.

Together, we have achieved so much in the past year, including what I believe is a culture of positivity and growth. I am proud to be part of this journey with each of you. Let us continue to support one another, celebrate our accomplishments, and embrace the opportunities that lie ahead.

SHALOM FROM SISTERHOOD

Kol Ami Sisterhood experienced an amazing year of growth in 2023-2024 filled with meaningful, enjoyable programs. Together we were able to celebrate holidays and events. We shared learning and new ideas at our educational programs. We also made connections with women of all ages, backgrounds, occupations and interests. Sisterhood brings us together to share concerns about world issues and the current war in Israel. We were proud to unite to make a difference through our caring support and a donation to Jewish Federations of North America's Israel emergency campaign.

We feel fortunate to be Congregation Kol Ami's Sisterhood as we reflect on the success of this year, grow stronger, and look forward to our upcoming year together.

The Co-Presidents of Sisterhood (Lisa Weiser, Tracy Goldberg, and Amy Bodofsky) would like to sincerely thank everyone that volunteered, helped with planning, and attended events.

Here are just some of the many events we enjoyed this year:

- Summer Sangria Social
- Holiday Gift Bazaar with a cafe and gift table
- Latkes, Babkas and Vodkas Chanukah party
- Sisterhood's Women & Spirituality Attitude of Gratitude program
- Braid. Spice. Cook! A Jewish food series presented by the Sisterhoods of South Jersey. The first of three events, "Challah Prince" Idan Chabasov, was hosted at Kol Ami with over 250 people in attendance (pictured below and on page 8).
- Women's Seder was a pre-Passover celebration that featured the beautiful music of Rabbi Milan-Polisar

Upcoming Events:

May 8: Braid. Spice. Cook! will feature a "Busy in Brooklyn" live cooking demonstration at Temple Beth Sholom.

May 13: Cooking with Rosie Hymerling will be an evening of demonstrations and tasting by our own Sisterhood member

May 17: Sisterhood Shabbat

June 17: Closing Dinner at Elena Wu in Voorhees

June 26: Sisterhood's Women and Spirituality Aging Program

July 16: Sisterhood Summer Social (July 17 rain date)

What a wonderful year! Many Thanks! If you are not currently a Sisterhood member and want to be involved, please contact SisterhoodPresident@kolaminj.org.

THE RABBI TEACHES (continued from page 1)

*On a roof in the Old City
Laundry hanging in the late afternoon sunlight:
The white sheet of a woman who is my enemy,
The towel of a man who is my enemy,
To wipe off the sweat of his brow.*

*In the sky of the Old City
A kite.
At the other end of the string,
A child
I can't see
Because of the wall.*

*We have put up many flags,
They have put up many flags.
To make us think that they're happy.
To make them think that we're happy.*

As one literary commentator wrote, the setting is the Old City of Jerusalem, a place of historical and religious significance that is also a place of conflict and division. While the poem focuses on mundane objects, symbols of the everyday lives of the people who live there, each is also a reminder of the deep divide that exists between the two people, as well as the reminder of the human cost of conflict, and the hope and innocence that is constantly threatened by violence and seeing one another as enemies. While Amichai's poem is a powerful piece drawing our attention to the division and ongoing conflict, it also serves as a reminder of the power of human connection, of our inherent humanness (and, thus, holiness, if we believe we are each created in the image of God), of how not-so-different we are.

Ghassan Kanafani, who was a prominent Palestinian writer, considered to be a leading novelist of this generation also wrote a poem about the innocence of children, the desire to protect those who are tragically caught in the middle of war, and the very real cost of ongoing conflict and violence – a poem that could have easily been written by a poet of any background (Israeli, Palestinian, etc.). He wrote:

*I wish children didn't die.
I wish they would be temporarily elevated to the skies until the war ends.
Then they would return home safe,
and when their parents would ask them:
"where were you?"
they would say:
"we were playing in the clouds."*

During this sacred season – of holidays that call upon us to remember, to celebrate, to look at our past and hope for the future – may we continue to have the courage and strength to never stop praying and working and striving for a more lasting peace for Israel and her neighbors.

As Amichai also wrote:

*Don't stop after beating the swords into plowshares, don't stop! Go on beating and make musical instruments out of them.
Whoever wants to make war again will have to turn them into plowshares first.*

MEN'S CLUB

By Michael Feist

One of the most important things you can do in life is press the proverbial pause button and reflect. As I approach the end of my first year as Men's Club President, it's appropriate to look back at the year that was. I came into this role with certain goals and aspirations. Most of our events exceeded any expectations I had. Each event and interaction taught me a lesson.

As we approach summer, our event schedule slows down a little bit. I'll miss 'the guys,' but it does present me with an opportunity to think back on the year that was and learn what worked versus where there may be room for improvement.

Looking back at the installation speech I delivered last summer, I challenged myself with a few goals as Men's Club President. First, I wanted to build on the tradition of tikkun olam that has always been a cornerstone of Men's Club. I also wanted to ensure that Men's Club would grow in numbers – specifically reaching out to the younger synagogue population to ensure the longer-term viability of Men's Club. While our membership numbers have gone up, there is always room to grow as we continue to expand our community.

As a first-time synagogue cohort leader, one of the biggest lessons I have learned is that going it alone is never a recipe for success. Jack Welch, former CEO of General Electric, once said, "Before you are a leader, success is all about growing yourself. When you become a leader, success is all about growing others." This is a consistent challenge for me as a leader – asking for help. I am fortunate and grateful to have an amazing Board that is always there when I need them, along with countless others who consistently chip in to help at our various events. In the coming year, it will be a mission of mine to continue to grow this sense of volunteerism that exists within Men's Club and to cultivate the next group of leaders. I appreciate everyone coming on this journey with me and can't wait for what's next.

Men's Club's Chrain Gang made it's legendary Passover horseradish once again this spring. It's been "serious" business for over 30 years!

ARE YOU CURIOUS?

Do You Enjoy Sharing Stories with Others?
Are You Looking for a Welcoming Community?

Look no further than the offerings of the Adult Education Committee of Congregation Kol Ami. From Shabbat mornings through the week, in person, on Zoom, and hybrid (both in-person and on Zoom); led by our fabulous clergy, or led by talented fellow congregants and sometimes led by rabbis and other experts from around the globe, there is bound to be something (or more than one something) for everyone.

All adults of any age are welcome to participate. You can come and go as you wish and are able – picking topics of interest or teachers from whom you want to learn. Many of our weekday classes are recorded and available on the Kol Ami website, so you can access them on your schedule.

There are no prerequisites! Just come with an open mind and you will become a valued member of our community within the Kol Ami community.

Look through the offerings listed in this edition of Connections to see what's happening now. Mark your calendar for September 7, 9:00 am – 4:00 pm, as we kick off the new year with an all-day program for adults.

Any questions? Contact Gail Donner, Ira Miller, or Mark Pinzur at AdultEd@kolaminj.org.

SOCIAL ACTION

Our Social Action Committee is hard at work (as always!), offering various Mitzvah opportunities. Recently, volunteers cooked an Easter brunch for residents of Gift of Life Howie's House, and others raised funds for their Donor Dash. Gift of Life has led the way for organ and tissue donation and transplantation in the U.S. and made a great impact worldwide.

On May 7 (6:45-8:30 pm), Beth Hurwitz will spearhead a group making peanut butter and jelly sandwiches to contribute to Cathedral Kitchen. Sign up soon, space in our prep kitchen is limited. Similarly, Estherose Heyman is looking into assisting Manna on Main Street with food pantry and soup kitchen preparations.

Our Environmental Awareness & Sustainability sub-committee, led by Sharon Parnes, Rachelle Lampert, Bill Fisher, and Pam Barroway, is planning an educational program for next year, exploring and prioritizing actions to pursue, and even making suggestions for efforts within Kol Ami's walls.

Refugee Assistance, led by Steve Janove & Jaimee Friedman, continues its essential support of relocated families needing a helping hand in the form of job searches, furniture and clothing, transportation, and more.

Our Social Justice Advocacy sub-committee, led by Michele Zeldner and Gail Donner, will once again be participating in the "Every Voice/Every Vote" postcard campaign. Watch for opportunities to help spread the word about the importance of voting.

If anyone – present committee members or those interested in joining – have new ideas, projects to explore, interest in helping to set direction, please contact Rachelle Lampert at rachelle.lampert@verizon.net.

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

Sheri Greenblatt
Director of Education

As the Religious School winds down for the year, we have had a moment to reflect on what an amazing year it has been. The students have made new friends and strengthened existing connections. Each classroom has been buzzing with active learning and inquisitiveness. The enthusiasm throughout the school during special programs, T'filah, and even just down the hallways has been amazing to see.

Registration for the Religious School is coming out soon. We have a lot of new and exciting things planned for next year. Be on the lookout for it so you can register your kids for the 2024-2025 school year.

BOOMERS SOCIAL GROUP

Our Boomers Social Group has had a fantastic year. Our wonderful members have had engaging lunches, great book discussions, and a lovely Shabbat on April 5 (pictured above).

As with everything at Kol Ami, it's the people, our community, that give us love, life, and hope. We are a very inclusive group, and everyone at Kol Ami is more than welcome to participate in activities that strike your fancy – no matter when you were born!

Boomer-led Spice Up: The May 18 Spice Up Your Judaism program (10:15 am; hybrid) will be led by our own David Korngruen. David will be talking about the Kindertransport during World War II. He will be relating stories from his father and a family friend, who were two of the children sent to England.

Hiking Group: On May 19 at 11:00 am, our hiking group (co-chairs Bill Fisher, Rachelle Lampert, and Stephanie Welder) will go for a 1.5-mile hike at the Pinelands Preservation Alliance in Vincentown, led by congregant Carlton Montgomery. This hike will include an optional tour of the chemical-free farm. This will be more challenging than our April hike.

Lunch Group: On May 21 at 1:00 pm, we will enjoy a catered lunch ($20 per person) in the Kol Ami social hall. Ira Miller will be our guest speaker, discussing the music of the '60s and '70s. Please bring your favorite record album covers (if you still have them) so we can share. For more information, contact event chair, Karen Ginsburg at kareng1@verizon.net. The following lunch, planned by Karen and Bobbie Israelsky, will be at Norma's Middle East Restaurant on July 23, at 1:00 pm.

Tour of Kimmel Center: On June 4, congregant David Olinsky will lead a free tour of the Kimmel Center in Philadelphia. We will meet at Woodcrest PATCO station at 10:00 am. We will likely have lunch in Center City after the tour. More details will follow.

Book Discussion Group: June 9 at 7:00 pm will be our hybrid book discussion (off-site in person and via Zoom) on The Red Balcony by Jonathan Wilson. Please plan to bring your lawn chair and join us in the backyard. If it rains, we'll fold up our chairs and head inside. Also, start thinking about the books you would like Stephanie Welder to put on our list for next year. We will be voting on book submissions around the end of May.

Planning Committee: Our next Zoom planning meeting will be on May 26 at 11:00 am. Please join us. If you have any questions, concerns, or ideas to share, please email Judy Lubetkin (morahjudyl@aol.com) or Lynn Branfman (tensb@aol.com).

Please check your emails and the Kol Ami website for registration and information about all of our activities. Be there or be square!

Lists are inclusive from the last issue of Connections through April 4, 2024.

Congregation Kol Ami
Tribute Dinner
 honoring Rabbi Jerome P. David and Steve Janove
 April 14, 2024

Paying Tribute... A memorable Kol Ami Tribute Weekend began on Friday, April 12, with a delightful Erev Shabbat Service and culminated on Sunday, April 14, in an incredibly special and fabulously touching Tribute Dinner (pictured above, courtesy of Ken Romm Photography). Todah rabah, thank you, to all of our sponsors, attendees, supporters, performers, and community for helping us properly honor Rabbi David and Steve Janove for their enduring good works.

What a Prince...

On March 20, Kol Ami and the Sisterhoods of South Jersey welcomed Challah Prince Idan Chabasov for a hands-on demonstration of his challah art, as part of its Braid. Spice. Cook! cooking series.

Fun with Food... Twenty Adult Education participants got into the kitchen with Rabbi Milan-Polisar for her tasty series, "A Journey into Jewish Food."

Let Us All Breathe Together... Rabbi Sheila Peltz Weinberg, our Scholar-in-Residence and teacher for the weekend of March 8-10, led us through engaging sessions and helped us find our spirituality within.

In Stitches... A fun time was had by attendees of our March 27 Spring Stitch. Knitters enjoyed a catered dinner and conversation as they made Caring Caps for donation to area hospitals.

Solar "Flair"... The synagogue staff was "totally" decked out in their solar eclipse glasses as they stepped outside to see the phenomenon on April 8. Not pictured: Ruth Scott (someone had to take the photo!).

Purim Fun... Our March 23 Purimpalooza Retro Dance Party saw revelers in costumes from so many fun decades! The event for the 'over 21' crowd included a megillah reading, line dancing, and libations! We followed it up the next morning, March 24, with our Kelce/Swift-era Religious School Purim celebration, the "Megillah of Oz" Purim Shpiel, and, finally, we followed the yellow brick road to a Purim Carnival for all ages.

What a Mensch... On Sunday, March 24, Brandon Lyons (center; pictured with his parents Wendi & Jaret Lyons) was presented with this year's Ravi Bloom Memorial Award, a scholarship given to a high school-aged "mensch," enabling them to pursue a passion.

Say Cheese... Just look at these brilliant ECC and Religious School punims!

May/June B'NAI MITZVAH

Dylan Coffina

May 11

Son of Kim & Scott Coffina

Brothers: Alex & Ethan

Hi, I'm Dylan! I have a family of five with Mom and Dad and two older teenage brothers, Alex and Ethan. I love listening to and playing music. I play alto saxophone for instrumental bands inside and outside of school. I play soccer for Mt. Laurel United as well. Soccer is my favorite sport, but I enjoy other sports as well such as basketball, baseball, and even football. I attend Marlton Middle School and I'm in seventh grade. My mitzvah project is a beach cleanup in Atlantic City to make sure the beaches are clean, and the wildlife is safe. Being a Bar Mitzvah means a lot to me because it shows that I've grown so much, and still have so much more of life to discover.

Avery Brown

May 11

Daughter of Randi & Doug Brown

Brother: Cooper

My name is Avery Brown. I am 12 years old and live with my mom, my dad, my brother Cooper, and my dog Murphy. I'm in seventh grade at Voorhees Middle School. I am a soccer player, and I love performing in theatre productions. I also love singing, art, and spending time with my friends and family. For my mitzvah project, I volunteered as part of the Ezer program at Congregation Kol Ami. I was an assistant in the first grade Sunday school class. I love teaching students about Jewish traditions through songs, stories, and art and showing the importance of celebrating being Jewish. Becoming a Bat Mitzvah is an important tradition for the women in my family. My mom-mom, mom, and now me are three generations of women who have taken part in this tradition. I look forward to continuing my Jewish education and continuing to celebrate my Jewish faith with my family.

Samara Feist

May 18

Daughter of Ellen & Michael Feist

Brother: Ethan

I am in seventh grade at Rosa International Middle School. I love being on stage whether it's dancing, acting, singing, or playing violin. In my limited free time, I like to draw and color, listen to music, play games, chat with friends, and play with my dog, Sandy. For my Bat Mitzvah project, I made bracelets for people to show their support for Israel. I charged eighteen dollars because in Jewish symbolism for numbers, eighteen, or chai, means life, and this project is about bringing life to those who are suffering in Israel. All the money raised was donated to the Magen David Adom, the Israeli Red Cross. Becoming a Bat Mitzvah means so much to me. I've learned my responsibility as a member of the Jewish community as well as how to manage my time in practicing for this day.

Seth Davidoff

June 8

Son of Michelle & Craig Davidoff

Sibling: Alexis

My name is Seth Davidoff, and I am in seventh grade at Voorhees Middle School. I love to play soccer, basketball, and flag football and I love to watch and cheer on all the Philadelphia sports teams, especially the Eagles and Sixers. I have a dog named Rusty who I love to spend time with. For my Bar Mitzvah project, I volunteered and raised money with and for an organization called Animal Aid USA. Every 28 days, a team from NJ drives to Georgia to rescue dogs from high kill shelters and brings them back to NJ to be adopted. They provide them with all necessary veterinary treatments to help save these dogs' lives. Becoming a Bar Mitzvah has allowed me to have a better understanding of my Jewish religion and all of our traditions.

Caroline Foster

June 8

Daughter of Leah & Tim Foster

Sister: Charlotte

I am in seventh grade at the William A. Mary Middle School in Moorestown. In school, I play on the middle school soccer team, participate in the student council, and run track. I have played soccer for my club team, Moorestown Soccer Club, since I was five years old. I love to go to the beach in Margate in the summer where I have a lot of cousins and family. For my Bat Mitzvah project, I collected over 100 pairs of sneakers and sent them to GoSneakers.com, an organization that donates the sneakers to kids and adults who want to play sports or be active. Becoming a Bat Mitzvah is important to me because I am carrying on a family tradition that goes back many generations and I will create this memory of becoming a Jewish adult in my congregation.

Emily Plevinsky

June 15

Son of Jen & Marc Plevinsky

Siblings: Aly & Jake

My name is Emily Plevinsky but I usually go by Emmy. I live in Cherry Hill with my parents Marc and Jen and my two siblings Aly & Jake. I love playing all types of sports but soccer is my favorite. I've played soccer since I was three years old and continue to play everyday. I am in seventh grade at Beck Middle School where I play on both the soccer and basketball teams. For my mitzvah project, I am collecting and donating used soccer equipment to the Kensington Soccer Club in Philadelphia. Many of their players can't afford to purchase their own equipment, so the club provides it for them so all kids can have a chance to play. To me, becoming a Bat Mitzvah means that I am becoming a Jewish adult and can take more opportunities to volunteer in my community.

Bring us your plastic bags!

Go green and drop off your clean, dry, plastic bags/film* at the main office during regular business hours. Our goal of collecting 500 pounds of plastic will earn us a beautiful, new composite bench.

Visit www.kolaminj.org/trex for full details.

*Please continue to recycle your hard plastic at home.

PLEASE PATRONIZE OUR SPONSORS

You, too, can advertise your business or service! Connections, Congregation Kol Ami's bimonthly, home-delivered source of information, is great for various advertising needs. For rates, please contact Info@kolaminj.org.
