Rabbi David,

Throughout the past 50 years, you have been a source of inspiration, comfort, and strength, embodying the true essence of what it means to be a spiritual leader. Your teachings have illuminated our path, your words have deepened our understanding, and your presence has instilled a sense of unity and belonging among us.

Congratulations on reaching this incredible milestone.

Our Mazel Tov and Deepest Admiration to Our Dear Friend and Soul Brother, Steve Janove!

How many people can one man help,
advise, bring along, take their hand, change their lives? When that man is you, Steve, it is limitless.

You are energized by your inspirational wife, Ilyse, your beautiful family, your squadron of meaningful friends, your legion of grateful clients...and by your never ending zeal to repair, to tirelessly pursue the mitzvah of Tzedakah.

We are grateful for you.

Steve, our friendship since high school is one of life's greatest gifts. You have made a difference in the many lives you've touched and have done so with a grace and humility that we deeply admire and love. Heartfelt congratulations to you and Ilyse on this special occasion.

Max: Did you hear? Kol Ami is honoring his friend Steve.
Emma: Can you believe it? They've been friends for over 50 years! High School. College. They even worked in the same law firm for a time.
Max: They're ancient!
Emma: I know. Except that Steve looks a lot younger.
Max: And he's in much better shape.
Emma: And better looking.
Max: And smarter.
Emma: And way more generous.
Max: So, why is Steve friends with him?
Emma: Beats me.
